Notes for JOHN C. BULL:

Third Arkansas Infantry Regiment, CSA

Company A, "Arkansas Travelers"

This company of volunteers, calling themselves the "Arkansas Travelers," was organized at Portland, Ashley county, Arkansas, May 20, 1861, by Captain William H. Tebbs. It traveled to Lynchburg, Virginia, where it was assigned to the Third Regiment, Arkansas Volunteers, as Company A, July 1861. On September 25, 1862, forty-two members of disbanded Company L—also from Ashley county—were assigned to this company. During its four years of service, 147 men served in Company A. Only twenty of them remained when the company was surrendered at Appomattox Court House on April 9, 1865. Their paroles were signed on April 12, 1865, and they were released to go home.

The information on these pages was edited and graciously given to the Edward G. Gerdes Arkansas Civil War page by Bryan R. Howerton, who we thank so much. He can be reached and thanked at this email address!

Roger,

I just thought I would let you know that my grandmothers first husband Otha Leo Keeney and William Glenn Cummings. My grandmothers motherAvrilla died of dust pneumonia because of all the dust from the dust bowl. Her sister Gretchen Juanita Bull died because she had a terrible rash that they couldn't get rid of and they took her to see a doctor that gave them a lotion to apply to it. When they did she began screaming as if the lotion was burning her and her skin turned all red and then she died. Her brother who died in the car accident was killed when the car he was driving ran into the back end of a semi carrying pipes. If you need any further information like on my grandmothers children and then their children I would be happy to provide more.

Thanks for everything. And how are we related if you know? Carrie

IN THE BEGINNING

WANDA LEE COPELAND ANDERSON

No one has ever told me details of the day I was born. However, according to my birth certificate, the following is known and can be verified by researching Book 6, File no 645 of the Birth Records of McLennan County, Waco, Texas. Dr. H. E. Hoke was the attending physician.

I was born August 16, 1930 at 2215 Burnett Street in Waco, Texas at 11:00 P.M.. I assume this was a birth at home since there is no institution mentioned on my birth certificate. The certificate has the name of Wanda Lu Copeland, but my name is Wanda Lee Copeland. I can only assume someone did not loop the e's correctly. This would certainly be an omen for my future.

My Mother, Kate Estelle Stone Copeland and my Daddy, Joe Hal Copeland had been married since about 1922. We do not know the exact date of their marriage. but, my oldest brother, Joe Hal Copeland, Jr. was almost 7 years old and my other brother, Weldon Stone Copeland, was almost 3 years old, when I was born. Joe was born September 23, 1923 and Weldon was born September 25, 1927.

Mama had been born in Woodbury, Cannon County, Tennessee, June 12, 1897 and my Dad was born February 10, 1890 in Rogers, Falls County, Texas. The Stones had moved to Texas around 1917 and settled in the vicinity of Bartlett, Texas. The ancestors of the Stone family came from Ireland. I have included a listing of a genealogy with this literature on both the Stone Family and the Copeland Family.

For clarification, the brothers and sisters of my Mama were; Cecil, Shelah, and John for the boys; the girls were Alta and Elsie. Cecil, Alta and Elsie would play a very important part in my life, each of these individuals along with their families were very supportive and helpful to us. Mama's mother was Eliza Markum Stone, always called Grandmother, by her instructions to me. Mama's Dad was John Benton Stone, known as Grandad. All of these relatives were good and honest Christian people and were especially prominent in the shaping of my life.

Elsie was only 15 years older than me and we never called her Aunt Elsie, she is a delightful wonderful person, I love her dearly. I was never around John or Shelah very much. Grandmother was a special favorite of mine for she was a witty, fun loving, and a Christian. She has told me how she was baptized in the Stone's River in Woodbury, Tennessee after she married John. Grandmother was my lifeline, and did a lot of sewing for me when I was a child, always making sure I had nice things. I suppose Elsie or Aunt Alta purchased the material, they all helped looked after me. Grandad died in 1938, more about that later.

The Copelands had a bit more children: the boys were Seth, Fountain, James, Joe, Floyd and Powell, the girls in the family were Cary, Florence, Edna, and Laura Christine (always called C). All of these children were born in Texas near Temple in Bell County but in Falls County. My Dad's birthplace is listed as Rogers, Falls County, Texas. Two other children died, one at age 2 and one at birth.

Dad's grandparents were James and Stacy Webb Copeland and they had migrated to Texas from Tennessee in or around 1856 and settled in Falls County, Texas. My grandfather, Joab Copeland was born in Perry County, Tennessee and his ancestors had come from North Carolina and originally from England. Again see the genealogy listing following this.

My Grandmother Copeland, Laura Christine Scarborough Copeland, came from Arkansas to Texas when she was a little girl. Little is known about the Scarborougs other than they lived in Drew County Arkansas. GGrandad Scarborough's name was Oliver J. Scarborough, he was born in Alabama; and he died in Drew County Arkansas. Grandmother was eight years old at the time of his death and sometime later her mother moved to Texas with her children. G Grandmother Scarborough name was Rebecca Bull and was born in Georgia. I have recently found some information about other family members. I remember her telling me about some relative, a grandmother probably, hiding on a boat from England and coming to America. I only wish some family members were alive to verify this and give me more information.

Before my Mama died, we lived in the area of Waco, Texas and when I was three my Mama died from an insect bite. It probably was a bee sting that she had an allergic reaction from. Penicillin and antihistamine were nonexistent at that time. The date of her death was September 1, 1933 and the sting or bite occurred when she was swimming in a creek. Again, someone didn't loop the e's.

I don't know much about the surroundings in my life for the first three years. I do have some memories, like I can remember my Mama being in the kitchen and making cottage cheese. We had some cows and I think some horses. Another memory is when I evidently wandered away from home and was found at a neighbors' home. Now, who is to say, if I really remember this or was I told about it? I can remember her singing to me "There's an All Seeing Watching You." I also have a memory of my Mama being sick in the bed and my Uncle Floyd sitting beside the bed. Uncle Floyd was my Daddy's brother and was a doctor. The last memory was of my Mama lying in the coffin in my Grandmother and Grandad Stone's house. The house was located on Garland in Waco. Not a lot of memories to carry with you for a lifetime. Mama is buried in Oakwood Cemetery in Waco, Texas. I, also, have a vague memory of being in a wreck with my Dad and have a scar on my nose from that.

Sometime before Mama died, my Dad had attended Baylor University and almost completed his law degree. It is my understanding he did not ever practice law because of his hearing disability, sometimes blamed on the big guns when he served in World War I. I think it was hereditary, as my brother Weldon and I have the same problems.

My Daddy was a loving father and took care of us with the help of both families. We lived close to my Grandmother and Grandad Stone and Elsie in Waco. They moved to Fort Worth sometime in 1937. My Aunt Alta and her family moved to Fort Worth around this time with their children Wardene and Johnnye.

My Grandmother Copeland had been a widow since 1915 and I am not sure where she lived. She had lived in Temple, Texas at 303 South 22nd Ave and she and Grandad ran a boarding house. The house is still standing. At some point she had moved to Dallas and later to Irving, Texas near Dallas. I know this through an application for a widow's pension, my Grandad Copeland had served in the Confederate States of America. He also was a Texas Ranger, serving with Company F. This can be verified in the Texas Archives.

TIME CHANGES EVERYTHING

Eventually, we also moved to Dallas. While in Dallas, my Dad had a used furniture store and moving company with my Uncle Jim Martin. Uncle Jim was married to Dad's sister, my Aunt Edna. I have many memories of this couple and all are good. They were evidently very good and kind my brothers and me. My Dad, Joe, Weldon and I lived in an apartment in a big house on Tyler, I say apartment it was actually 2 rooms. My Dad and I slept in one room and my two brothers slept in the kitchen. The house was located right across the street from the fire department. I can remember going over to the fire department many times. Aunt Edna and Uncle Jim lived in the same house and I think Aunt Edna took care of the renting the apartments for the owner.

Uncle Jim and Aunt Edna had two children, Cary and Jimmy, they were grown by the time we lived in Dallas. Cary married a Gerry, and their two children were Sandra and Jerry Kent. At one time they lived in Ft. Worth in the Poly section, for some reason my Dad kept a horse there. The horse's name was Tony. Later on, they moved to Pittsburgh, Texas where Cary had a saw mill. Quite a change for a former Camel sales man. After the war, my brother, Joe and his family moved to Pittsburgh and invested in the saw mill with Cary. This proved to be a bad decision as the saw mill burned during that venture.

Dad took us down the street to a Baptist Church and sometimes there were revival meetings across the street on a vacant lot and we would go over there when the tent meetings were held. I don't think the Baptist held these meetings, it was some other church, maybe Pentecostal.

I think we must have moved to Dallas when I was about five years old. This is where we lived when I started to school at age six. My first grade teacher was a Mrs. Brown, an experienced teacher and I adored her, for the second grade I had a Mrs. Thompson. She was a young teacher and very pretty. I can still visualize both of these teachers in my mind. I attended John H. Reagan grammar school.

What happened in between the years my Mama died and the year we went to Dallas, I have little memory. I do remember my Grandmother Copeland living in Irving, Texas very near to Dallas. I spent a lot of time with her in this country home. At first she did not have electricity and running water. All of these things came later, but not a lot later. The adding of a bathroom and running water was a big moment. The Irving I knew was quite different from the Irving of today. Grandmother and I would attend the Methodist Church and were picked by members of the church.

My Dad wanted me to take piano lessons, I must not have wanted to because I told the teacher we could not afford it anymore and stopped. I do not know all the particulars regarding this decision of mine. I also took tap dancing for a short time. Even in those hard times, families evidently thought it important for girls to be exposed to some form of the arts.

Then in August of 1938, my Dad caught a train to go to Hines, Illinois for some skin surgery. There was a veteran's hospital there and he had skin cancer. Amazing that Texas didn't have a veteran's hospital, now they are more of them. Some say it started around his mouth and was aggravated or brought on by his smoking a pipe and blowing his hunting horn. He had several surgeries and each time the surgery took some of his lower lip away. He wore a bandage that covered his lower lip and chin area. This would be his last surgery, while in Illinois, he died from a heart attack, the date was August 28, 1938. It is still clear in my mind when he left and someone took him to the railway station, I cried for him so very much. I remember the event very much. That was the last time I saw my Dad alive.

My brother, Weldon, and I had stayed in Fort Worth with the Stones while he was away. The apartment, where they lived, was located at 1017 Eighth Avenue. On that day, it was a Saturday, Weldon and I had gone to the Tivoli Theatre on Magnolia Avenue in Fort Worth. When he got to the ticket office, they asked him if he was Weldon Copeland and we had a message to come straight home and we turned around and walked back home. I can remember Weldon and I wondering why Granddad wanted us to come home. My Grandmother Stone had gone to Tennessee to visit her son, Cecil and his wife, Viola. She loved to go back to Tennessee and would always be ready to go, most anywhere.

My Granddad did not go and was at home by himself when he got the phone call about my Dad. He had our neighbor, Mrs. Wright, making phone calls for him. She was doing this when we walked back in the house. It was not a short distance to the movie house and I guess we ran most of the way. I can still see my Granddad leaning over Mrs. Wright as she was talking on the phone. The apartment was in a duplex and the Wrights lived on the other side. They were wonderful people, owned a florist just on the north side of the house.

I don't have a lot of memory through all of this, only when I was sitting in the funeral home in Waco, Texas by the side of my Grandmother Copeland. I can still visualize my Dad in his coffin. Because he was a veteran of World War I there was a flag draped on it. He was buried beside my Mama in Oakwood Cemetery. Someone didn't loop the e's again.

My brother, Joe, had been staying in Dallas while my Dad was gone. He was almost 15 and worked at the furniture store and the moving company Joe Hal was a good boy and very hurt when Dad died. Suddenly he was a young man with responsibilities beyond his years.

Because my Dad wished it, the Stones took charge of us children. It was decided that Weldon and I would live with Grandmother and Grandad Stone. My Mama's youngest sister, Elsie, was not married and still lived at home. Joe was sent to Childress, Texas to live with my Uncle John, a brother of my Mama's. He wife's name was Eugenia and I don't think they had been married very long. Uncle John had graduated from Baylor University in Waco and he worked with Texaco in Childress. Uncle John had excelled in baseball while at Baylor and evidently made good grades. This didn't work out and later Joe moved to Dallas and made his home with my Dad's brother, Uncle Floyd.

Weldon and I were enrolled in Lily B. Clayton, the school that Wardene attended. Things seemed to be worked out - then again someone forgot to loop the e's. My Grandad was hit by a drunk driver and lived for a short time in December 1938, he never regained conscious. I also remember going to the hospital and seeing him in his bed. He was a gentle and loving person.

Strange, Wardene and I had been playing in the attic at 1017 Eighth Avenue and heard the ambulance pass the house on the way to St. John's Hospital at the corner of Magnolia and Eighth Avenue. My cousin, Wardene, was the daughter of another sister of my Mama. Wardene was few years older than I was and we were very close. She had no choice, I was always around. Her mother was Aunt Alta and she was married to Abner Meroney, they had another daughter, Johnnye. Aunt Alta had accepted the responsibility of Legal Guardian of the three of us. This was to become my family and I knew I was loved. Everyone cared for each other.

After the death of Grandad, December 3, 1938 the Stones had to rethink the responsibility of raising three children. I was sent to live with my Uncle Cecil and Aunt Viola, at this time they lived in Murfreesboro, Tennessee. Weldon was living with Aunt Alta and Uncle Abner. That lasted for a while and then he was living with Elsie and her husband, Bill Davies. Bill was another wonderful relative and a real supporter for us children.

JOURNEY TO TENNESSEE

Uncle Cecil and I rode a Greyhound bus back to Tennessee and it was a long trip. We rode all night and the only thing I can remember is crossing the Mississippi River when we were leaving Arkansas and entering Tennessee. I crossed that river many times since that night and I always think of an eight year old girl moving so far from everything and everybody she knew and loved. It was a sad trip. At least we weren't in a covered wagon.

For a time, when I was living in Murfreesboro, Uncle Cecil and Aunt Viola had a restaurant, The Lyric on Main St. They had a house at 814 N. Church Street, it was in a good neighborhood and I had several children in the area. Aunt Viola and Uncle Cecil rented out two apartments and we actually lived in a bedroom and the living room. I slept on a day bed and all of our meals were eaten at the cafe. I enrolled in Crichlow grammar school. My third grade teacher was Miss Jackson, she was a very good teacher. I remember the day Uncle Cecil took me to school and I cried. Later on we took over one of the other apartments and had more room.

I did well in school and made respectable grades. My afternoons were spent at the cafe, mainly I played upstairs and I also skated a lot. For my very first Christmas in 1938, Santa couldn't find me. My cousin, James and his wife Muriel, gave me my skates for Christmas, I literally wore holes in those steel rollers. Not to mention what I did to the toes on my shoes. I will always remember how the Stones sent packages for Christmas, Valentines, birthdays and all other special occasions. I never heard from the Copelands. They told me that the Stones took you away from us, maybe, but the mail ran everyday but Sunday.

Next door to the cafe was Travis Shoe Repair shop, then Fite Feed Store and then The Daily News Journal. I played in and around these stores as a young girl. Murfreesboro was a good place to live. Down the street was the jail and a friend of mine at school was the daughter of the Sheriff. I played around the jail a lot and I can't even remember her name. When I played at home there was John Douglas Hood, Hall Irby, The Ruckers lived across the street, James Wendell Rucker was in High School. He had a younger sister, much younger than me, I think. Then there was the Lewis family that lived down the street, they had a young boy Bobby. I had a crush on John Douglas even though he was younger than me, he returned the feelings, I used to ride to church with him and his Aunt on Sundays for Sunday School. I don't remember about his parents. Uncle Cecil and Aunt Viola would come only to church. Right next door to the house on Church Street was a grocery store, owned by Hall's Dad.. Mr. Irby was a nice man and as I remember there were good people all around us. Later, a family named Fisher moved in on the street on the way to town. I became very good friends with Barbara. Her Dad had been transferred to Murfreesboro and was in management at the Carnation Plant.

We went to church at the Main Street Church of Christ, regularly. It was a good experience and every summer I got to go to Texas. I would ride the Greyhound bus by myself all the way to Texas and change busses in Memphis. Pretty scary for a young girl, I don't remember being afraid of anything, if I could get back to Texas. You could not do that today, nor would parents even think of such a thing. It was a necessity then.

I was active in school and would take part in anything. In the fourth grade I was a flower in some kind of school program and the costumes were made of material and cellophane, mine was colored green. Then the next year we did a show on Ironsides, my costume was of the Colonial Period. They called it an Operetta., these were my first taste of stage and music. I loved doing these type of things, though I never aspired to be a professional in these fields, it was a great experience for a young girl. My fourth grade teacher was Mrs. Womack and this year I made my first and only F in arithmetic. Don't know what happened to cause that but arithmetic has never been one of my strong points. Mrs. Womack was a very good teacher.

Then came the fifth grade and Mary Belle Robinson, she was a very strict teacher. Miss Robinson liked me and recommended to be in Ironsides. I was an adventurous child and had to write, "I must not talk." many times. One time, she had me write "I must not laugh like a horse." This wouldn't happen in today's school and I do remember it was very embarrassing to me. I only wish I knew what was so funny that I was snickering. This was the year of my first boy friend and his name was Wyatt, don't remember his last name, but he had red hair and had a crush on me. I did not have the same feelings for him, though he was a nice boy. I remember the valentine he gave me. but I don't remember what it said.

I also joined the Girl Scouts, but this was not a good move, I had to walk a long way to the meeting house. It didn't last long cause it cost ten cents a week and I didn't have the money for a uniform. Actually, I got a portion of my Dad's pension from being wounded in World War I. The amount was ten dollars a month and it came to Uncle Cecil, Aunt Viola kept a record of all the expenses. The expenses were more than ten dollars, I can assure you. Aunt Alta took care of all these things including some land that Daddy had and was sold., she deposited all the money in a bank account and would have to go to court to ask for anything other than the usual pension amount. She was our Legal Guardian, and that must have taken up a lot of her time. I never heard her complain. She and Uncle Abner were special in my life and never did Uncle Abner ever make me feel like I wasn't part of his family.

MANCHESTER TENNESSEE

Sometime in 1940, the Stones sold the cafe and Uncle Cecil took a job with the government driving a rolling Post Exchange, (PX). This was a commodity store that followed the army of maneuvers. There was war in Europe and our country was trying to prepare. In 1940, when I was in the sixth grade we moved to Manchester. Uncle Cecil was no longer on maneuvers and had a job as a manager of a post exchange in Camp Forrest near Tullahoma. So, I had to change schools again, this would be the last move. I enjoyed the elementary school in Manchester and had the same teachers for three years. Miss Rena Morton taught English, Mr. A. C. Willis taught History and Civics and Mr. Heard Lowry taught Arithmetic. They were all good teachers and were a vital part of shaping my life. All of them attended church with us at the Church of Christ. The same church I would marry in many years later.

Again, in school I took part in the dramatic functions and was lucky enough to take "Expressions" with Mrs. Miller. This was an early drama class for me and taught me confidence in myself and being able to talk. Actually we memorized poems and stories and retold them with "expression". Since Mrs. Miller was not part of the education system there was a charge for this and even today I thank Uncle Cecil for allowing me this opportunity to learn in that element. It was a wonderful experience. I loved these drama classes and being in musicals.

I had many friends and was well liked, I think, at least I felt comfortable. We didn't have a lot of money and material things, but I don't remember feeling poor. I was blessed in many ways. There were many times I did not feel particularly loved by Aunt Viola and I was not allowed to do some of the things other children did. They were very strict on me and I think that is the reason I loved school, it was away from home and with people who cared for me. Two of my closest friends during this difficult period were Jean Mason and Lucille Hershman. My Aunt Viola did not care for either of them. Lucille's father had left his family for another woman, there were four of the Hershman girls and they were all very pretty. I am not sure where Mrs. Hershman worked, it may have been in the Pajama Factory in Manchester but they were good girls and a loving family. Mrs. Hershman was a fine lady and very kind to me. Jean Mason was also a product of a broken home, her Mother was a school teacher in Beech Grove and there were four of those children. Mrs. Mason was a wonderful person as were each of the children. I am glad for this experience with both of these families.

So in the eighth grade, I had my first date, it was with Billy Sam May, product of another broken home, he lived with his grandparents and they were respectable people in the community. I had a large crush on Billy Sam but because I was in the eighth grade, that was my only date. I got to go then because all that went were Boy Scouts we went to the movie theater, The Lyric.

Manchester was a small town and the county seat so we had a square and a court house. When we first moved there we lived very near the square and rented an apartment from a Mr. and Mrs. Ashley. They very good Christian folks and attended church where we went. They had no children and Mr. and Mrs. Ashley was especially kind to me, one Christmas she took me out in the surrounding area and we cut a Christmas tree. I can still see that tree, it was very small and we only had one light on it. One light was all I needed, it was special to me. While living in this house Pearl Harbor was bombed and World War II was declared. I remember Sunday, December 7, and the feelings I had. That was over fifty eight years ago and it is strange how some things stick in your mind..

We made three other moves while in Manchester, one time we lived on McLean and our neighbor was Mrs. Gilliam, her son was Fred Gilliam an attorney in town. He and his wife, Katherine lived in this huge house on the corner of McLain and Ramsey with his mother. She was a good friend and I used to sit on her porch and just talk. She had a wraparound porch with swings and rocking chairs. I spent a lot of time with the older Mrs. Gilliam, I adored her, she was a wonderful and kind person.

At this time Manchester had two telephone systems, the Home Telephone Service and Southern Bell was just coming in. We had two telephones at one time and for some reason, I don't remember why, I used to go over to the Home Telephone office. Maybe, it was to pay the bill. The office was in someone's home.

Then we moved to 411 Harp St., This was a nice house and only a block from the McLain each of these houses were very close to the grammar school. I walked to school and came home for lunch. This was small town America in the forties. Life was so simple then.

These were the early days of the war and because of Camp Forrest nearby we had a lot of soldiers and their families living in the town. Sometimes we rented out a front room with kitchen privileges and also shared the living room. One of these couples were from Georgia and he was a captain in the Army, they were very Southern and also drank a lot. Their name was Captain and Mrs. Griffin. Mrs. Griffin, I can't remember her name, was a very kind lady and a great friend to me. We kept in touch with them for a long time. There were several people Uncle Cecil and Aunt Viola made friends with that lived in the community and were connected with the camp..

One couple in particular was Walter Bowen, he and Uncle Cecil both worked at Camp Forrest. As couples they played Rook a lot. I always had to go with them to the Bowen's house. They lived on the old Tullahoma Highway. I can remember some happy times. One is particular stands out in my mind, we were having a picnic near a lake. Of courses the Bowens brought beer, the bottle was green, and I indicated I wanted to drink some. Uncle Cecil told me to go ahead, I don't know how old I was at the time but probably over 12.. I drank some and that was enough for me, I never tasted beer again.

I finished the eighth grade in 1944 and on July 31, 1944 began my adventures in high school, still in Manchester, Tennessee.

Roger,

Don't know if anyone would have thought to let you know. Linda (Don's wife) and her Grandson Cade were coming home from Texas and on Saturday morning were in a car accident - fatal. Neither made it. I'm sure Don and Connie (Cade's mom, Linda & Don's daughter) could use all your prayers, as the rest of us could too. It has been a terrible shock and as always is the case so unexpected. I have lost four family members in the last two months, my Grandma, my Step-Dad and now Linda and Cade. If there is anyone else you think should know, please pass this along.

Carolyn
